Curriculum Vitae

Architect Ben Bauer

Email: ben@nobearch.com

Phone: +972-52-8455892

Adress: Hagalil St. 130, Haifa, Israel

Professional education:

2009-2012- Master in Architecture at the Technion, Haifa.

Desertation topic: Application of branched coral morphology in order to decrees the heat Iceland effect in large metropolises

2008- participant in climatic studio by Prof. Edna Shaviv and Prof Avram Yejioro.

2004-2009- Architecture studies at the Technion, Haifa. (license num. 00124034)

Practise and teaching:

2016-today- Co-founder of NȯBë Architecture.

2015-today- Member of the team "A- is for Architecture, B- is for Biology", that will present Israel at the Venice Biannale for Architecture 2016.

2012-2015- architect at "Tzamir architects and town planner Ltd."

2011-2012- tutor at "architecture history in the middle ages and the modern era" at the Technion

2010-2011- tutor at "introduction for modeling and presentation (Autocad)" at the Technion

2009-2010- Design "Ronicho" coffe shop at the dormitory of the Technion

2009-2010- editin "the light at the end of darknes"- biography by Miryam Partush.

2008-2009- architect at "Dokov Architects"

Publications:

Bauer, B. Tibi, A. & Shavit, U. (2013) Branching Morphologies- cities and corals. Research Thesis In Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Master of Science in Architecture. The Technion – Israel Institute of Technology.

Bauer, B. Tibi, A. & Shavit, U. (2011). Cross-section morphological study. VRAP 2011 conference. Leiria, Portugal.

Prizes and scholarships:

2010,2011- Excellency in teaching at the Technion.

2009- The Azrieli fellows program for academic excellence and leadership.

2009- citation of the final project in the sustainability category at the faculty competition- Technion

2008- 2nd place for climatic project at the faculty competition- Technion

2005-2009- The Impact scholarship for soldiers of the Association for the Wellbeing of Israel's Soldiers.